

Handful of Purposes

Table of Contents:

1822

Early religious impressions – Mourning over a hard heart – Halting between two opinions – Illness of her father

1823-28

Prayer for sanctified affliction – Father's death

1829

Self-acquaintance – Commencement of spiritual warfare – earnest longings after a living faith – Hope springing up

1830

First communion – Doubts and uncertainty – Waiting for a sense of pardon – Becomes a Sunday-school teacher

1831

Anxiety about family prayer – Self-mortification hard to bear

1832

Begins the year with an Ebenezer – Visit to Normanton – Cholera at Nottingham

1833

Declining health – Much spiritual darkness and trying Providences – Last illness and death of her uncle

1834

Journey to Birmingham – Looking into self – Consequent depression – Glimpses of the grace of Jesus

1835

Bearing the cross – Deep heart exercise – Temptation to infidelity

1836

Fervent wrestlings – Distinction between root and fruit – Hears with interest a Caffre chief

1837

The Scriptures precious – Helps by the way – Riots in Nottingham – Loss of a book – Striking answer to prayer in connection with it – Lukewarmness lamented

1838

A profitable conversation – After perplexities – A blessed “assurance of faith” given – Sin a burden – Rejoicing – Symptoms of a fatal disease – The world a snare – Felt helplessness

1839

A close walk with God – Bodily weakness – Fresh manifestations and love visits from Jesus – Foretasting glory – Deep sense of sin – The Savior her hiding-place – Living in Christ – The flesh subdued – Fasting and feasting

1840

Renewed dedication of body, soul, and spirit to the Lord – Remembrance of past mercies – Shortcoming – Searchings of heart – Victory through the blood of the Cross

1841

Soul discipline – Diving teaching – Under a cloud – Felt distance from her Lord – Pressing after a life of faith – Restored to communion – Much tried respecting the publication of her letters

1842

Large requests – Perfect freedom – The Proverbs of Solomon full of Christ – Groaning under felt corruptions, yet glorying in the Lord – Pecuniary straits

1843

Earnests of the inheritance – Her watchword, “More of Christ” – His Person unfolded by the Spirit, through the Word – Sorrow and joy – Self-loathing – The fight of faith – The chastening of love – Kissing the rod – Spiritual arithmetic

1844

Risen with Christ – Blessed views, by faith, of a glorious Christ – Feeding upon the Word – Poor and needy – Leaning upon the Beloved – Jesus her daily Sabbath – Still panting after further revelations of his glory

1845

Eternal union with Jesus – Fiery darts of the wicked one – The precious name of Jesus – Lesson from a spider’s web – Temporal mercies lent by the Lord – Fresh anointings from the Holy One – Singing of mercy and judgment

1846

The illness of her mother – Anxieties and pleadings on her behalf – New discoveries of the beauty of Jesus – Serving Him without fear – Grace abounding – Her mother’s death – A sparrow alone – The Lord also her Comforter

1847

Not alone – Visit to the grave – Communion with glorified saints – Pressing cares – Walks by faith – Timely deliverance – Visits the House of Refuge

1848

Peculiar straits – looking unto Jesus – Longing for the salvation of souls – A cry from the depths – Feasting at the King’s table – The triumph of faith – Prayer and fasting, with thanksgiving – A great answer – Emboldened to wait upon the Lord – Singing His praise

1849

The Lord’s faithfulness – Temporal and spiritual help bestowed – A Visit to Ockbrook – Great weakness of body – Beams of the coming glory – Rejoicing in the great salvation – Laboring in the vineyard – A public fast – Continued trial in temporal matters, yet cleaving to the Lord and to His promises

1850

Christ her all in all – Favored with access to the throne of grace – Blessed fellowship with Jesus – Matlock blessings – Teachings of the Spirit – the Spread of Popery

1851

A day of darkness – A “time of refreshing” from the presence of the Lord – Fatigue and sharp conflict – Great Malvern – Journey mercies – Increasing sufferings, but new songs – A happy Christmas Day

1852

Rumor of French invasion – Trusting in the Lord – Heart-wanderings – A Peculiar trial – Meditations on the Word – A day of humiliation – Friday evening meetings – Prayer to know God’s will in little things

1853

Seeking brighter evidences – Sensible comforts diminished – Faint, yet pursuing – Sojourn in Edinburgh – Feasting in Famine

1854

Yearning over the soul of a sick friend – Good Friday a hallowed season – The mystery of the blessed Trinity unfolded – Lessons from the Scriptures – Thanksgiving for a plentiful harvest – A time of war – Fellowship with Christ in His sufferings

1855

Thoughts upon death – A day of national fast and humiliation – Much exercised about seeking further medical advice – Passion week – A time of Jubilee – Sips from the fountain – A Glorious view of a suffering Christ – Resurrection blessedness – Justification by faith – Christmas Eve

1856

A time of temptation – The Bible a wonderful book – Perplexing letters spread before the King – national rejoicing on account of peace restored – The blessings of Calvary – Martha and Mary – A visit to Filey – Self-examination – ‘The Word made flesh’

1857

The Spirit's word – Redemption price – Panting after Jesus – A banquet with the King – The coverings of the tabernacle – A second visit to Filey – Divine Love – Watching for the Lord's hand on the top of Mount Carmel

1858

A New Year's motto: "Looking unto Jesus" – The Refiner's work – Longing for the "better land" – The debt paid, and the Church eternally free – The blessedness of union – No birthday portion – The sun in a mist – The furnace

1859

Tribulation – Disease progressing – Death of Mr. T – Preciousness of the blood of the Lamb – Jesus as the High Priest – Christ delighting in His Church – A feast-day

1860

More bodily suffering – The enemy harassing – Christ in the types, Psalms, and Prophets – The realization of the presence of Jesus in the furnace – Safe in the Ark – The Lord of hosts for a crown of glory – The last entry